2. Isaak Walton, our most famous fisherman, sang:

"O! the gallant fisher's life,
It is the best of any:
'Tis full of pleasure, void of strife
And 'tis beloved by many.
Other joys are but toys;
Only this, lawful is;
For our skill breeds no ill,
But content and pleasure.

3. The sportiest fishing in America is brook trout fishing and hip boots are absolutely essential.
4. In the woods a man casts off his years; there he finds perpetual youth.
5. Casting, the most difficult of fisher's arts.
6. Thin, strong lines, cutting the crisp air, alighting softly on the sparkling surface.
7. Scaly, slippery, gamey, swift, wet, staring trout.
8. Every ounce of him is fighting weight.
9. Remember Tennyson's lines:

"For men may come and men may go,
But I go on forever."
10. Trout fishermen, particularly when in a canoe, prefer downstream.
11. "Idle time, not idly spent," said Sir Henry Wotton of fishing.
12. The Immortal Shakespeare wrote:

"The pleasantest angling is to see the fish
cut with her golden ears the silver stream and greedily devour the treacherous bait."
13. Angling has become a co-ed institution.
14. "There goes my fish!"
15. Patience.

16. The moving brook. Beneath its surface lurk the wily trout, swiftest of the river breeds.
17. The Hatchery, where the trout come from.
18. The dinner bell.
19. Ever see 'em bite like this?
20. Where the "Bread Line" is a whirlpool.
21. They're just like Oliver Twist.
22. Food can tame the wildest trout.
23. Hatching time arrives.
24. Taking eggs from trout.
25. There are several kinds of trout. First, the Speckled.
26. And the Brook Trout.
27. Also the Rainbow Trout.
28. Where eggs are hatched.
29. Just arrived.
30. From 15 to 30 days old.
31. From 30 to 45 days old.
32. Swift said; "Fish should swim thrice. First in water, next in butter and then in good Claret." But that was before July 1st.
33. Here are the great fish hatcheries on the Au Sable River where the swift trout first learn to swim.

Will Rogers says:

"Looks like a great year for the U.S. See where Prince of Wales is coming over and President Wilson is visiting us now."

"Bet Bryan would like to get back to this country again."

"President is here to explain the League of Nations to Congress. You know those guys can't read anything and understand it."

"President is coming out here to California. Hope these Californians will use the good tact to let him speak of the climate first."
